

Project
Last Mile

MILLIONS of people in Africa lack access to critical medicines.
yet, you can get a Coca-Cola product nearly ANYWHERE IN THE WORLD

WHAT IF we all came together and shared...

SKILLS AND IDEAS

DISTRIBUTION EXPERTISE, MARKETING SKILLS, BUSINESS BEST PRACTICES,
to help life - saving medicines go the “last mile” to those that need it most?

THIS IS PROJECT LAST MILE

This powerful global partnership between PEPFAR, USAID, The Global Fund, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, The Coca-Cola company and its Foundation is leveraging and transferring Coca-Cola's core business capabilities to support public health systems in Africa.

THE RESULT IS
life-saving medicines in reach of more people in Africa.

And we're not done yet. Project Last Mile is gaining momentum and expanding to more countries. Multiplying hope for many more people.
